Thanks to Our Reviewers

Crop Science is pleased to publish a list of Society members and other individuals who reviewed papers for the 1976 issues. The list includes 525 names of reviewers. All reviewers gave valuable time and thought to evaluating papers that were sent to them by the Associate Editor, Technical Editor, or Editor. Publication of their names is a token of our appreciation for their service to the journal and to the Society. Because these names were compiled from secondary records, some names may be incorrect, repeated, or even omitted. To these persons, we extend our apologies and thanks. Without the contributed services of all reviewers, the quality and quantity of papers in Crop Science could not be maintained. Recognition is also given to the editorial staff at Headquarters Office.
